

ABILENE WEEKLY REFLECTOR. ABILENE, KANSAS, JUNE 21, 1894.

RECENT REFLECTIONS.

The U. P. crossing at Cedar is being repaired.

Mariage license: F. O. Cline and Inez O. Hoag, of Minneapolis.

B. C. Cranston is a member of the new Populist State central committee.

The ladies of the Lutheran church will serve ice cream and cake on July 4, afternoon and evening, in the Hallam-Kirby park.

The Century War Book series is half completed. It is proving exceedingly popular and several score complete sets have already been ordered by REFLECTOR readers. It will make a splendid and cheap book for any library.

Atchison Globe: There are so many more things women want than the ballot: a few new dresses, good times, moonlight picnics, ice cream, and naturally curly hair. If voting would give these things, the Republican delegates would have been mobbed.

The Carpenter house has a tramp protector. It is a pile of wood and it requires one hour's work thereon to get meal from the house. But few of the traveling gentry patronize it, though once in a while one seems willing to. The proprietors claim to be ahead on the deal.

Southwest Dickinson is having considerable creamery trouble. The farmers and the management of the Holland creamery did not agree as to milk prices and there was talk of a removal to Carlton. However, all has been amicably settled and if there is a creamery at Carlton it will be a new one.

The Baptist and Christian Sunday schools had a delightful picnic yesterday afternoon at Walnut Grove and all present thoroughly enjoyed themselves. There was but one accident. The little son of Mr. and Mrs. John Herman fell from a wagon and a wheel ran over him—good fortune not injuring him seriously.

I. S. Hallam and family are moving this week into their Vine street house which has been transformed into one of the city's costliest and most elegant residences. It is heated with hot water throughout while the cooking and lighting will be by gas manufactured on the premises. Handsome grates and many modern and expensive adornments have been added. Mr. Hallam may well feel proud of his delightful home.

Wilcox-Russel.

At the home of the bride's brother, A. L. Russel, last evening at 8 o'clock occurred the wedding of Miss Annie Russel and Mr. Horton Wilcox, Rev. Dr. Blayney officiating. Only the immediate relatives were present but occasion was none the less enjoyable. A delicious supper followed the ceremony and a number of handsome presents were received. Mr. and Mrs. Wilcox went at once to their home, the groom's farm northwest of the city. They have the best wishes of many friends.

M. Gleissner's Drug Store.

ODD FELLOWS SUSPENDED.

The Orphan's Home Tax Trouble Disrupts a Lodge.

The De Boisbierre Orphan's Home of the I. O. O. F. is still a disturbing element in the order. The lodge at Herington has had its charter taken away. The Times explains as follows: The Odd Fellows lodge here in town had their charter taken away from them last week by the order of the Grand Master, though it is likely that it will be restored as soon as the facts are made known and the faults, if any there be, are discovered.

The trouble originated from the part this lodge took in the kick about the collection of a per capita tax last year for the support of the De Boisbierre Orphan's Home. At first and before the tax was ever levied, this lodge donated of its own free will and accord one dollar a member for the support of the concern and paid the greater part of the donation down. But afterward, on learning the conditions on which the donation of the property known as "The Home" was made to the Grand Lodge, this Lodge refused to pay the full amount of the assessment until the case then brought by Remo Lodge and other lodges numbering about ninety in all, should be disposed of in the courts. That suit was decided in favor of the Grand Lodge. But the case was afterward appealed to the supreme court, and now the Grand Master has suspended all the lodges engaged in the suit that have not paid the per capita tax.

It is quite likely that this lodge will now pay the balance due—under protest perhaps—and ask to have its charter reinstated. This looks to us at least, to be the proper thing to do, then to go before the Grand Lodge next fall and abide its decision.

Tonkin Clarke.

A pleasant party of invited guests witnessed the ceremony which last evening made Julius Tonkin of Hope and Miss Mary Clarke, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. S. Clarke, husband and wife, Rev. E. E. Tarbill officiated; there was a wedding supper, congratulations, pretty presents, etc. The happy couple go to Hope on tonight's Santa Fe train. The bride has resided in Abilene nearly all her life and has many friends who will wish her joy. Mr. Tonkin is a drayman of Hope with a good business. They go to housekeeping at once.

Getting in Shape Again.

Affairs at Enterprise are, as predicted by the REFLECTOR, getting into good shape once more. The bank suspension has proved far less serious than was anticipated. No depositor will lose a cent and the stockholders are well satisfied that they will probably reopen the bank. The Ehrman Machine Co., yesterday put a mortgage on its plant for $25,000 which is advanced by eastern investors to clear up small indebtedness and will insure the continuance of the shop with abundant resources. The shop has renewed their lease for 15 years of ground owned by the Rock Island and evidently mean business. We are glad to see our sister city getting on so well—but that is characteristic of Enterprise.

MADE THEMSELVES AT HOME.

Twelve Tramps Live High for a Night—Their Parting Letter.

There was high jinks in the house of Mark Versteeg on southside last night. The family was not invited because they were away visiting. The guests at the little surprise party were twelve tramps and indications are that they had a hilarious and refreshing time.

The feathers of nine spring chickens were scattered over the floor. The tramps had killed, cooked and eaten them. Five loaves of bread were gone and the pantry had been stripped of its choicer establis.

But that was not all. They roamed through the house and helped themselves to everything they cared to carry off. All the clothes were taken and the visitors' rags were left in their place.

When they had spent all the time they wished to and had ransacked the house they left, placing the following note on the table:

Dear Sir: We have had a very pleasant evening in your house. There was 12 of us and we just come in because we were hungry and wanted something to eat. We want rations but we want ours rations, you know. In fact we have got the same rations as you can see we took em. We are much obliged for the things we got an hope you will be as well fixed when we leave again. We're going to Hutchinson city. Good by. We'll tell you about you when we get to Washington. Good by.

THE 12 ATWOODS.

Populism the Issue.

The following letter from a prominent worker in church and politics in this city appeared in yesterday's Capital:

ABILENE, Kas., June 12.—In the Capital of June 3 is an article, by N. C. McFarland, entitled, "The Supreme Issue," which deserves special commendation and endorsement. The members of the Methodist district conference and Endeavor society certainly have an undoubted right to express their individual opinion. But speaking from the standpoint of a Methodist layman I think I am correct in saying neither of them had authority to bind any one else. The Populist party ought to make the defeat of Populism and restoration of the credit of the State its supreme issue this year. With this greatest of all evils that has ever befallen the State out of the way, there will be ample opportunity to attend the other issues. Make the Populists face the record they have made the last two years, and they will be relegated to the oblivion from which they never should have emerged.

W. S. ANDERSON.

CENTRAL COLLEGE'S TURN.

Enterprise's School Is Having Its Commencement Week.

Special to the REFLECTOR.

ENTERPRISE, June 14.—Central college, the United Brethren school located here, is having its commencement week. The school has had a smaller attendance than last year but still has had good sized classes.

The president, J. A. Weller, delivered the baccalaureate sermon on "The Faultless Man." A sacred concert was given Sunday evening, conducted by Miss Sophie, teacher of music.

On Monday evening the literary societies gave an excellent anniversary program consisting of songs, orations and declamations.

"David the Shepherd Boy," was the subject of the annual concert on Tuesday evening.

The Masters' orations were delivered last night and this evening occur the graduating exercises proper at which several students will receive diplomas. All the exercises are held in the college chapel.

Some Politics.

The Republican county convention will be held five weeks from Saturday. Then the next list of county officers will be named.

A. K. Vanderbilt says that the Populists showed absolutely no sense at their State convention. He predicts overwhelming defeat for them. Count him out on the Pop ticket and platform.

The Dispatch appears to have something against Judge Johnston and is not supporting him for associate justice.

Hope Crescent:

No one has yet been mentioned for representative of this district and we would suggest the name of E. C. Little, of Abilene. Mr. Little is one of the county's best attorneys and would make an excellent representative of the people.

Solomon seems pretty sure to have a representative on the Republican ticket.

Populist candidates must have their names filed (and their $5 put up) by June 30th or they cannot get on the ticket.

The Herington Times says: "No man in Dickinson county has made so many friends during the past two years than Pitt Halleck." The Times is pretty nearly right.

Make up your mind to help turn down Populism.

Minneapolis Messenger: When the Populist convention at Topeka was opened with prayer the people were convulsed with laughter.

Evidently the Populist idea of an address to the Throne of Grace is that it is a rich joke. The whole tendency of Populist teaching is to undermine not only respect for law, but belief in religion.

All those who like to be with the winners will vote the Republican ticket this year.

The Kansas City Star says a Dickinson county man made a speech in the Pop convention but nobody listened to him. The Star is mistaken. Dickinson's orators are always listened to.

The Republicans of Kansas do not worry so much about keeping off the grass as they do about getting into the clover.

The News wants a Democrat nominated at Concordia who will help defeat John Davis. Are you sure now that you want him to remain on the track?

This is the way Chairman Nichols of the Populist
